

2016 and All That!

A brand new play by Ben Gander
at Sheet Village Hall
February 16 & 17, 2018
7.30pm & 2.30pm Sat matinée

2016 and All That!

A new comedy by Ben Gander

The coming together of four generations to celebrate great grandma Ethel's 90th birthday a few days after the Brexit vote would only mean several things: arguing, misunderstandings, farce and mayhem. While the cantankerous nonagenarian may be looking forward to a return to the good old days, her eldest granddaughter is devastated at the prospect of hopeless isolation. Meanwhile, Jo is trying her utmost to make sure the weekend goes smoothly with little help from her happy-go-lucky husband (who has little control over their mischievous children), and she is quickly losing her marbles at the constant nonsensical comments of her mother-in-law and the 'well and truly stuck in the 1970s' humour of her father-in-law.

What could possibly go wrong ... ?

Performances will be at Sheet Village Hall

on February 16 & 17, 2018

at 7.30pm & 2.30pm Sat matinée

Bar and nibbles available

Tickets priced £8 (£6 for 18 and under), are available from One Tree Books or www.lionandunicornplayers.co.uk

See Facebook.com/petersfieldlionandunicorn